ALADDIN AND THE STOLEN STORIES

Thousands of years ago, a powerful King of the Ancient World decided to hide five stories which each held a lesson, a clue or a secret - The Stolen Stories. The King cast a spell to ensure these stories would only reveal themselves to the most honourable, worthy and true, at a moment when they needed them most. They were lost for centuries. Until one day, many years later, not far from where we are now, they would be found...

So here's where you come in...

Use this booklet to help you navigate the Stolen Stories films and discover a hidden 'Found Story' in each episode. You'll also find lots of fun activities to do alongside watching all the episodes.

Now, let's begin...

MEET THE CHARACTERS

SCHEHERAZADE

"I'll be your guide, Scheherazade (Zade for short) the weaver of one thousand and one tales. Follow me and I'll guide you through our stories, but first, let's meet the others..."

ALADDIN

"I'm Aladdin - nice to meet ya! I'm from Bradford and sometimes my sticky fingers get me into a bit of bother with the market owners. You haven't seen a magic lamp lying round here have you?"

GENIE OF THE RING

"Hello! The Genie of the Ring, at your service! My job is to serve and protect whoever wears the magical ring. My favourite thing to do is make magic with my bright yellow umbrella. I just wish my master Aladdin would listen a bit more."

MARGO

"Hello fools, I am Margo the great and powerful. I'm on a mission to find the five Stolen Stories. Legend says that whoever holds them will unlock powerful secrets of the universe, and then I'll finally be the most powerful sorceress in the world! Mwahahaha!"

LUPE

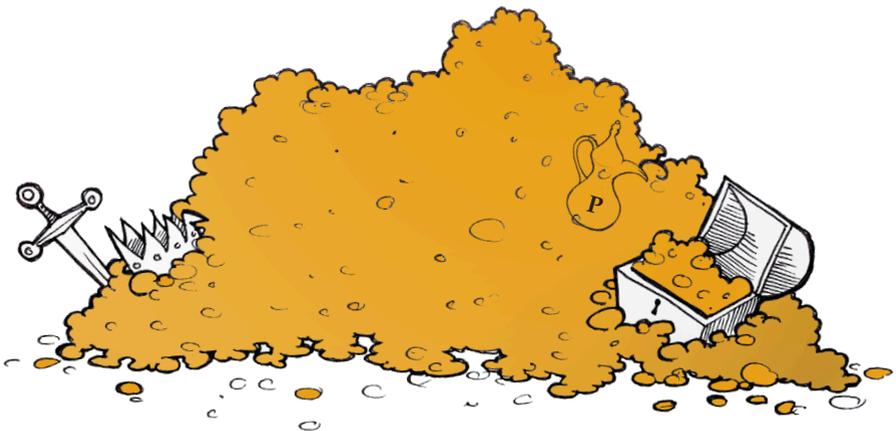

"And I'm Lupe, the average and powerless. I basically do whatever, and go wherever, Margo tells me to. She's a good Mistress, but I do wish she would let me choose what we watch on telly just once in a while."

The first Found Story is Ali Baba & the Forty Thieves, or as I like to call it, Morgiana the Wise...

Ali said the words magic password and crept inside. The cave was filled with treasure hidden there by the thieves. "Surely the thieves wouldn't miss a little of this treasure, if I took some for myself" he thought, so he filled his pockets with gold and jewels left the cave."

Draw Ali Baba on top of the thieves' mountain of treasure below:

MOUNTAIN OF TREASURE

Ali Baba needs your help to count exactly how much gold and jewels he took from the Forty Thieves Mountain of Treasure. Add up the coins below and put your answers after the equals (=) sign.

Looks like Ali's doing alright for himself!

THE JINN'S RIDDLES

Magical jinns are well known for their love of tricking people. Can you correctly answer the Jinn's three riddles? If you can defeat him he will banished inside his bottle once more.

"I'm not one of your happy-go-lucky wish-granting Jinns, I've been trapped in that bottle for thousands of years! So I don't feel like granting you three wishes right this second, I feel more like... destroying the first person I see!"

"Please mighty Jinn" said the Fisherman, "if you won't grant me three wishes, may I ask you three questions instead?"

Jinn's Riddle 1: What has to be broken before you can use it?

Jinn's Riddle 2: If a red house is made of red bricks, and a blue house is made of blue bricks, what's a greenhouse made of?

Jinn's Riddle 3: What has a face and two hands, but no arms or legs?

WORD SEARCH

Hidden within this table of letters are 12 words that all link to the stories you've heard so far. Can you find them all? Don't forget to cross them off each time you find one!

In the fourth found story, The Three Princes, the brothers must work together to quickly take their three wonderful artifacts to Princess Nouronihar before it is too late...

Help them get to the princess as fast as they can...

FILL IN THE BLANKS _____

Story seekers, it's time to test how well you've remembered all of our stories so far!

Can you answer these questions correctly?

Match each of the words below to the correct sentence:

Bread

Magic Lamp

Apple

Cross

Alakazam

Necklace

1. In Chapter One of Aladdin & the Stolen Stories, Aladdin found the first story in a loaf of _____ he stole from the market.

2. In the story of Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves, the thieves painted a _____ on Ali's door so they could find him.

3. In the Cave of Curiosity, Aladdin and Genie tricked Margo into making herself tiny and squeezing inside a _____.

4. In the Jinn & the Fisherman, the Fisherman traps the Jinn inside the bottle by shouting the magic word _____!

5. In Chapter Two of Aladdin & the Stolen Stories, Princess Zade gives Aladdin her _____ when they meet inside the Royal Palace.

6. In the story of The Three Princes, one of the Princes used an _____ to return Princess Nouronihar back to full health.

Nice work - good to know you've been paying attention!

WRITING POEMS

"Eat from the fruits of These trees and you shall be inspired, but Eat more than your fair share and you will be cursed."

The poet ate the magical fruit to inspire him to write fantastic poetry, but eating too much turned him into a monkey!

PART 1 - Rhyming Words:

Here are groups of words that rhyme together, you could use these at the end of each sentence to create your poem:

moon - soon - balloon - tune

cave - gave - save - wave

monkey - chunky - grumpy - stumpy

open sesame - jealousy - melody - destiny

Here's an example poem for you:

A poet sat by a tree looking grumpy,
He picked an apple from a branch that was stumpy.

As he ate more and more, He could hardly get off the floor.

Until out of his bottom grew the tail of a monkey!

Can you think of any other words you can rhyme together?

In the fifth Found Story, Sinbad the Sailor, Sinbad uses his wits to defeat the monster and save his crew from getting gobbled up! But imagine if the monster did swallow them whole...

1. Draw the path that the sailors would take through the monster's body starting at the monster's mouth.

2. Can you label the parts of the body?

Draw a line connecting each part of the body to its correct name.

LAMP LETTERS

It's time for your final challenge, we need to defeat the evil Margo by uncovering the spell hidden within the pages of this booklet. Those eagle-eyed Story Seekers among you might have noticed some magic lamps scattered across the booklet, each lamp contains a letter that you can join together to discover the magic spell.

EXAMPLE:

Each time you find a new letter put it in the spaces below.
We have found two letters for you below.

O--- S-----

Once you have uncovered all the letters, rearrange them to find the magic spell. Make sure you stand up and say the spell in a loud and clear voice.

Happy hunting!
